A German seaman aboard an American vessel on the high seas is immune from arrest by Germany's enemies, in the view of the State Department, unless it can be shown that he is an active member of German naval or military forces.

Department officials said the captured men, provided they were not units in the German fighting forces, were as much entitled to American protection as they would have been on American soil.

The department to-night had no official advices of the seizures, and until such advices are received no action will be taken. It was pointed out by officials, however, that the United States was on record as asserting in positive terms the immunity of persons of whatever nationality aboard American ships. This position was taken as recently as November, 1914, in a successful protest against the action of a French cruiser in forcibly remove. a successful protest against the action of a French cruiser in forcibly remov-ing August Pipembrink, a German, from the American steamer Windber. SAYS ALLIED FORCES MUST QUIT GALLIPOL

Paris, Dec. 9 .- An Allied army of 500,000 or more will easily be available for operations in the Balkans in the spring, according to General De La Croix, military critic of the "Temps,"

There are 150,000 troops of the Allies at Salonica and 100,000 British at the Dardanelles could be transferred thence, says General De La Croix, who adds that unless the British army evacuates the Gallipoli Peninsula the chances are "ninetynine out of a hundred that within two or three months they would be thrown into the sea." Looking into the future, the military writer says that to these 250,-000 can be added a reorganized Serbian army of 200,000, and pos sibly 50,000 Italians, for a spring campaign, besides such other forces as may be sent from the West in the

At Les Eparges there was mine fighting. A group of enemy workers was buried by the explosion of one of our mines.

The statement issued this afternoon

In the Champagne district last night our artillery, following up its bombardment of the German positions, caused the explosion of a depot of munitions at a point to the south of St. Souplet. Our counter attacks to the east of Butte de Sousin have continued to drive back our adversaries, who now occupy only a portion of the advance trenches. Our batteries, by their constant fire, are preventing the en-emy from establishing himself here. In the Argonne district we have
